Arroyo Woodland and Wildlife Park
North Side of Pasadena Ave.
(100 block)

● = woodland and wildlife park trail

This three acre park includes meandering trails among rarely seen native California Walnut trees. The Woodland and Wildlife Park Trail begins at the park entrance and continues along the east side of the Arroyo Seco in South Pasadena. A lookout point located in the center of the park offers views of the historic York Boulevard Bridge, Mount Washington, the Verdugo Mountains, and the San Gabriel Mountains.
